

DHS Graduation 2023
Cap & Gown Application

1. Participation in the Ceremony includes:
  - a. Students who have and are registered in sufficient credits for an Alberta High School Diploma.
  - b. Students must be enrolled and in a position to complete 30 credits in their grade 12 year at Didsbury High School.
  - c. Students who have passed their necessary courses from semester 1 AND have a mark of 45% or better in all courses required for an Alberta High School Diploma on May 21st (or the first school day after May 21st) . On May 21st, students enrolled in CTS courses, off-campus courses (ex. work experience), and/or distance learning courses must be close to completing those courses.
  - d. Students who have paid or accounted for all school fees at Didsbury High School by June 5th (or the first school day after June 5th).
2. A preliminary list of grads who meet the above requirements will be posted on May 27th. Students who are not on the posted Grad list have one week to appeal the decision and demonstrate the criteria for Grad have been met.
3. The Cap and Gown Ceremony is held in late June; preferably after all diploma exams are complete.
4. Students are required to wear appropriate attire for Cap & Gown, which would range from semi-formal to formal clothing and footwear.
5. There will be a $30 fee to take part in Cap and Gown. This fee will be included as part of your school fees and can be paid on-line or by cheque.
